“ I am truly sorry to hear this news and my prayers go out to his family and especially his daughter he was so fond of. I have many great memories of racing against Tracy in the old B&M Series of George Howard's and other BIG $$$$ Bracket Races all over the southeast. The best memories are the ones from the pits, after the days races were over and laughing at one of his many, many famous stories. I even had the pleasure to stop in at his home/shop one time, when I was in the the Milledgeville area; to catch up for a few minutes after I had quit racing. You will be missed by many, as it is evident on here you were a friend to many. R.I.P. my friend!!! GODSPEED brother and see you on the other side.
