

Tricia Cowart Robinson

December 23, 1955 - June 11, 2023

Patricia 'Tricia' Cowart Robinson passed away on June 11, 2023 surrounded by all those that loved her. Born on December 23, 1955, Tricia spent sixty-seven wonderful years spreading joy to any and all around her. A comfort to many and a joy to all, most of her time was spent taking care of her family, her friends, and her community.

A Celebration of Life for Tricia Robinson will be conducted Wednesday, June 14, 2023 at 2:00 pm in the Chapel of Williams Funeral Home of Milledgeville with Mr. Jeff Youmans officiating. The family will receive friends at the Williams Funeral Home on Wednesday, June 14, 2023 from 1:00 pm until the service hour.

Tricia's life would seem too short to many, but those of us who were blessed to be touched by her understand that her existence and the imprint she left on our hearts exceed the quantity of time that she stayed here. Tricia was talented and adventurous in many aspects of her life. She was a master of gardening, an amazing cook and most importantly an inspiration to many. When Tricia wasn't working or gardening, she could be found reading a good book. Not a day went by where Tricia didn't talk about how much her children and family meant to her -- her family was arguably her most important achievement in life.

Tricia is survived by her loving husband, Robby Robinson Sr. and their dog, Sassy; her children, Robby Robinson Jr. (Lisa) and Brian Robinson (Fancy) of Milledgeville; grandchildren, Harley Robinson (Gage), Walker Robinson, Haylee Hurley (Keagan), Kelsey Chambers, Madison Chambers, Tyler Gray and Caleb Gray; great grandchildren, Mia Hurley and Luke Hurley; brothers, Billy Cowart (Dena), Bobby Cowart, Edward Cowart (Patty), Hayward Cowart (Kathy), and Tommy Turner; special friends and care giver, Laura and Jerome Bryan; a number of beloved nieces and nephews, and countless friends. Tricia was predeceased by her mother, Inez Turner, by her father, Lester Cowart, and her brother, Gerald Cowart.

In lieu of flowers, the family is asking for donations to The Family Hospice of Macon in her honor: The Family Hospice of Macon, 4562 Forsyth rd, Macon GA 31210. (1-800-410-4663).

“ I'm trying to remember the first time I met Tricia. I believe someone advised me to take my car to a small automobile repair shop over on N. Jefferson St. I did and found a kindred spirit. She and Robby were amazing at what they did. Robby was the quiet one and Tricia was the personality loaded with laughter and love. She was always telling stories about her kids and later her grandchildren. Her family was her pride and joy and as I began to bowl with their league, so were friends. She truly did not know a stranger. One memory I must attribute to Tricia, she is the reason Pickle Barrel is here today. When we had the store in the mall, she was a loyal customer of ours. When we shut down, she was forever asking me "when are you going to reopen?" At the time, I did not intend to, but I would tell her "We'll see." After Pico was a bust, she said "well you know what you need to do, put Pickle Barrel there." Those were wise words looking back. She was my inspiration. It's hard to believe she's gone, but she has left a beautiful legacy of her life with everyone who knew her. I'm blessed to have known her as are we all. I pray you find peace in knowing how much she loved and adored all of you. And also, in knowing how much she was adored by so many of us who were touched by her life.

“ Tricia and I are 1st cousins. We would talk for over an hour at times through the years about family, work, food, and recipes that we came up with of our own. But most of the time we talked about our Lord Jesus Christ. She had the heart of Jesus beating in her chest, and she shared it with everyone that was willing. I don't think she ever met a stranger. Many years ago we started an annual family gathering. I would bring all of our equipment and we would set up on the flat bed trailer in their backyard and the fun and singing began, along with incredible food. Tricia was always the life of the party. The last one we had was at my house on my stage, and yes she was there with that big heart of hers helping us have the time of our lives. She will be greatly missed until Jesus calls us home. Until we meet again sweetie, R I P with your New Name.

“ I remember meeting Tricia for the first time, you could tell she was genuine, she told it like it was and was a true inspiration. I remember talking to her a few months back and had just found out about her sickness. I am glad I was able to tell her I love her before she passed. Even when she was sick and we were talking she was talking about her family and how much they were helping her, she focused more on her family then her sickness.

“ Rob, Robbie Jr and Brian and family, I am so sorry to hear about Trisha!!! She and I worked together in the paint room at Rheem for several years and we were such good friends, and made so many memories. I will never forget what an awesome cook she was. She amazed me every year how she worked in the garden and put up all the vegetables, I couldn't believe it! And, let's not forget about the homemade cakes she made!!! They were simply the best! I remember she could cook a mean hamburger steak that would be as large as the frying pan! It was an honor to have known her and have been her friend! I will be praying for each of you. I pray God will bless all of you with His love and peace thru this difficult time and the days ahead. Love in Christ, Debra Hughes Roberts

“ Prayers for the family and friends of this beautiful and special lady. She leaves behind an impact on each life that she touched with love and kindness. She was special in many ways. I am happy knowing that I could call her my friend. Each though our lives didn't cross paths each day I am truly thankful for the days they did. She was going to teach me how to can this summer but I know she will be teaching some in Heaven now along with the skills of every kind that she had. She will surely be missed by many that knew her and to know her was to love her. She was a special angel here on earth and now a special one in Heaven. I pray that God gives you all peace and comfort in the days ahead. She is now in her new glorified body now and she don't hurt anymore.
