“ Condolences to the family of Mr. Troy Tapley. Although I did not know Troy personally, I know the pain that comes with the death of a loved one. The Bible holds out a beautiful future for those we have lost in death. Isaiah 25:8 assures that God will: "actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Yes, no more death, no more suffering - God will do just what He has in mind for obedient mankind. May the promise of a resurrection for Troy bring the family comfort and peace, knowing that death is not the end!!!

“ JUST FOUND OUT TODAY WHEN I GOT TO WORK. IT JUST BROKE MY HEART INTO A MILLION LITTLE PIECES..... TROY WAS SUCH A WONDERFUL PERSON. I have worked with Troy over the last three years. It was a joy to see him come in everyday. When Troy's birthday came around folks would pin dollars to his shirt and all. I bought him Cake and other stuff on Holidays....and the Key chain with his name on it. He said he liked the Georgia Bulldogs. This is such a shock to me and several others at work. I am on a different shift. But we shared the same work area and I spent 10-20 minutes everyday talking to Troy. Sure gonna miss him. and he was always chewing that gum. I guess he wont need a clock anymore. A little talk we had to him about on time... He was special to us all. My heart just aches... Prayers and Love to the family,

Mark, I know you already know this, your brother was a good person. I got to know him when he attendend Sinclair Baptist Church years ago. His mother's passing was very hard on him and we use to talk a lot about it. The last time that I saw him was in the grocery store about a year ago. Prayers are sent to you and your family.
