“ I am very, very sorry for your loss. I hope that your family will take comfort in the Bible's wonderful hope of the resurrection found at Acts 24:15. Revelation 21:4 also tells us that Jehovah God has promised that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and even death will be no more. His promises are completely reliable (Isaiah 55:10,11).

“ We are praying for you all daily. We remember when Ty and Tia and Francis came with us on a youth ski trip. We used your van like we always did on our youth trips. You were always ready to help us to take teenagers to hear about Jesus. Ty was about 5 years old on that trip and the teenage girls in our youth group (at Covenant) thought he was so cute so they decided to spike up his hair and Ty loved it.

“ *Dear Francis and family,
I'm so so sorry to read the passing of your son. I haven't seen you since leaving Milledgeville, but everyone says you have a beautiful family. I just wanted to express my deepest sympathy to you and your wife, kids and other family members. My prayers and thoughts are with you as your days ahead will be hard. I just know if your kids have your funny and crazy ways y'all will have so MANY wonderful memories to help your breaking heart. “ I do not know the depth of your grief, for Ty was not my child, nor my grandchild, my brother, my nephew or even my personal friend. However, I do know, respect and admire Francis and Tammy Kennedy and their beautiful family. I in knowing them, know that Ty will be missed for he is loved, I know that many will feel the ache of missing him, for they are the ones who love him. I know all to well... there are no words that carry the ability to comfort, no deed that I could do that would take away the pain. But we can stand resolute in the fact that we proclaim a savior who can meet you at your point of need. I encourage you to never let go of your belief and desire to serve Jesus, no matter the depth of your pain. You are loved by so many, hold fast to that.
