“ I am deeply saddened as the passing of Virginia. To me, she is and will always be grandma. I will never forget her smile, her honesty and her loving soul. She is a beautiful person that many could learn so much from. I miss hearing her voice and watching late night television with her, while snacking on lays classic potato chips. She had a great sense of humor and was very sharp. I will miss her pecan pie made with love, and family gatherings. Even though she gave me the recipe to her pecan pie; hers was always better! Being in the presence of Virginia always felt like HOME. My heart aches knowing my children will miss out on making memories at their great grandmas. We love you grandma! Heaven has gained one of the best people I have ever known!!!

“ My Dear, Dear, Sweet Aunt "Ginny." You shared your sofa for me to learn my school lessons. When I became older, you shared your heart to teach me life's lessons. Thank you SO much for your wisdom; wit; and love. I miss you but know you are in God's arms.
