

Virginia Tech Students

April 16, 2007

Please feel free to join with us in remembrance of the tragedy that has occurred at Virginia Tech and for the families of the people that lost their lives there. A copy of the register will be mailed to the Virginia Tech Registrar. If you prefer to stop by our funeral home, we will have a register book available for you to sign or express condolences. Please join with us as we pray for the families and the victims.

“ I cannot begin to understand what you as a family, faculty, students and friends are going thru at this time. I can only let you know that you are in my thoughts, my heart and my prayers. Someone told me a long time ago that when he passed he wanted to be remembered in this way.

"Remember the things that I loved most. If you do this, I will always be with you."

I try to remember this every day.##imported-begin##Cee##imported-end##

“ Our thoughts & prayers are with all the families that was touched by this horrible tragedy. There is so many terrible things happening in Schools & Universities since we have let God & prayer be taken out of the school system. We need to put God back where HE belongs. We will continue to pray for you.##imported-begin##J. C. & Martha Wilkes##imported-end##

“ God in LOVE has promised GRACE for every trial, STRENGTH for every sorrow, and HELP for every painful step of your journey.
And may He in SYMPATHY and unfailing LOVE impart Help for each tomorrow and new COURAGE to your hearts.
Losing loved ones brings grief but we are promised solace in God for comfort and healing. His grace is sufficient for our every need.
As parents and grandparents, we mourn with you over this tragedy and your loss.
Please know that each of you are in our hearts and prayers.##imported-begin##Robert and Joan Miller##imported-

“ Words cannot express the sadness that is felt by one who knows the halls of academia. I mourn as a professor for my colleagues and their student. I mourn for the families and thier loss. I mourn for the loss of intellect, talent and the contribution that society has lost. I mourn for a university and community traumatized by a senseless act of violence and I mourn for those who will now face a life that has forever been altered by violence that defies human understanding. I offer my prayers and thoughts to all victims, families and responders. May you find peace in the days to come and live life with a renewed appreciation for all of its value.##imported-begin##Dr. Thomas Peavy##imported-end##

“ I am shocked and hurt about the lives that were taken. I know we all will die, but when young people are shot down and for no reason, it makes me wonder just what has happened to us. This country is under God and I believe when we removed GOD from our schools, the guns and violence came in. My thoughts and prayers are with the families of all of the victims. also with the gunmans family too. It is a sad day in America when we kill each other.##imported-begin##debra herringdine##imported-end##
