“ My daddy and Wallace were not only cousins but also good friends. They shared the ability to makes folks laugh. They both had big hearts and I imagine there is a reunion in heaven full of laughter and a few exaggerated fishing stories. I pray for peace for the family.

“ This has been said before but has never been as true, "There was only one Wallace"! I loved him. Me trying always to make people laugh I was in Awe of Wallace he didn't have to try. He was brilliantly funny. I was in a play downtown one time and somehow they had my picture on the front page. He later commented that he put that picture in his cornfield and the crows brought back corn they had stole last year! There was only one Wallace.

“ I'm so sorry to hear the news. Wallace was truly one of my favorite people. He helped my family turn our dream of having a farm into a reality. He worked some long, hot days putting up fence in the summer sun. I enjoyed laughing with him with a glass of sweet tea under a shade tree when he would take breaks. He once brought his horse Tex out for a trail ride I will miss his sense of humor. He used to bring us BBQ and Brunswick stew from time to time. His dog Lil Bit would come along for the ride. I'll never forget his voice, his quick wit and his faithful friendship. I'll miss you, old friend. May you Rest In Peace. Lauren, Barry Bonner & Family
