“ For all the years that I have known Wayne, I have had great respect and love for him. While working for him and even after leaving the store, he was always a very good listener with a smile on his face as needed..the greatest two traits he displayed were a genuine God given love for his wife Joanne as well as a great love for his son Wade.. May his soul rest in peace now. He will be greatly missed by many.###imported-begin##Tauwana###imported-end##

“ So sorry for your loss, Wayne was a wonderful person. He was a very special brother-in-law, since he and my mother, "Addie" often went on dates with David and I to Macon wrestling matches. Joanne, Wade, you are in my prayers and thoughts, keep your Lord close and HE will carry you through your greif. ##imported-begin## Brenda S Allen ##imported-end##
