“ Share a memory of Wayne Tucker? Amongst the thousands of memories I have. It's funny you don;t realize how much a person is intertwined in your life until they aren't any more. Which memory to choose. Which smile he gave me to write about. Because Boomer was never short on giving out smiles. He lightened your mood, lifted your sadness, toted your weight and carried your burden if you even just crossed his path on a given day. He was without a doubt one of the finest men I've ever known. I have not known of anyone that didn't like Wayne. He was there to hold up the baseball bat to my daughters date one New Years Eve to be sure he knew there should be no hanky panky and to come home on time. He was there when my dog got shot, He road a building on a trailer down my dirt road with a broom, to lift wires as they went.through. If I had a nickel for every time he stopped and dropped and came running to help my family and I, I would be a weatlhy woman. I am wealthy for having had such a good friend. I loved the way he loved his mama and his daughter and the new shining love for his grandbaby. True to his brothers and sister and his friends like few I've ever seen. I'll miss him terribly, but there's no doubt that Heaven just found a new angel to watch over us, just as he did here on earth.

Love you Boomer
