“ One of the last conversations I had with Wayne: "My sweet wife takes good care of me, couldn't do without her". He told me about his sweet little granddaughter and how much joy she had brought to them. He made sure their home was decorated with many many lights for others to enjoy. This has been a long journey for him and his family, and God bless you my friend that I loved! Sending prayers for his family.

“ Judy, Julie, Donna, and family,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Wayne never seemed to let an infirmity outweigh his attitude and good nature. Remember seeing him at the nursing home "just hanging out" but there to spend a minute with many of the residents. One good way to spend retirement time. That memory may be bigger than watching the forestry plane circling.
