“ I don't know what to say. I just found out at lunch today that Wendell had passed. Mom called this past weekend and said he was sick and in the hospital. Nancy and I had stopped by his house and no one was home, just the Bulldog, a couple of months ago. Please contact us if there is anything we can do.
Take care.

“ Wendell and I bagged groceries together at Joiners Market in our youth, served in the Navy during the Vietnam period and returned home to work in public safety. He was a good officer. In the Sea Service, we know that men who go to sea in ships are cut from a cloth that is different than others. We are bound by a brotherhood of having gone beyond a place where land is no longer visible, where sky appears to touch the water on the horizon and where each shipmate is responsible for the well being of his other mates. He served well in his time and has now sailed beyond the horizon. Fair Winds and Following Seas Shipmate, your voyage is now completed.##imported-begin##Rev. Dr. Thomas Peavy##imported-end##

“ To the Fulford Family:

I always loved and admired Wendell. He was so dedicated to his mother, not just during her sickness but always. He showed his dedication and loyalty once again when he came to my father's visitation, even though he was sick as well. Keep the happy memories close to heart as I will. Wendell will always be in all of our hearts and I am sure my Father was standing beside Nana Fulford to welcome Wendell as the gates to Heaven opened.##imported-begin##Sherrie Niblett Gala (Sherrie Jean)##imported-end##
