“ I loved my cotton top brown eyed baby brother and picked on him a lot. We had our share of fights or rather arguments as we got older, but they never lasted long. Our last words spoken to one another were "I love you" and I thank God for that final farewell until we meet again. He's in Heaven because he believed in our all mighty Father God. Rest in Peace Billy, you're long over due.

Thank you Jackie and everyone. Yes he was young. Heart disease like every other disease does not discriminate. I hope you are doing better!
