“ I remember waking up when I'd be at their house staying and he loved cooking so much that in the morning while everyone would still be asleep we all be waking up and coming into the kitchen and the whole counter would be full of breakfast food and he would smile giving me a hug and he would all of us and say good morning sweetie and then me and him would sit down and talk about things drinking a cup of coffee together and then another time was when he came to my daughters funeral and all of my siblings and him and our other mom Susan stayed at my home and was trying to get me through that day and night after my baby girl past away I really loved my daddy and miss him and all the good times we all had with him laughter and all. I miss hearing his voice and how he would try not to get mad at any of us or try not to get on us. Lol RIP Daddy I do wish you were still here with us and it was like it use to be when we all was younger and he was fun to be around I just loved our talks and cup of coffee together me and him would have in the mornings together. I do miss that alot. I love and miss you so much daddy been thinking about you a lot lately.
