“ Christine, James and family: We were so sorry to hear of your loss. He fought hard and is now in a far better place. We remember when William would come in with you to pick up medicine, He always wanted to help carry things for you so you would not have a hard time. Do not ever doubt his love for you. If we can do anything at all please do not hesitate to call us.

“ Christine & family -

Always smiling! That is how I'll remember William. I am so sorry for your loss.

Whenever I must say farewell to a loved one, I always take comfort in this. The promise of eternal life with our departed loved ones becomes the gift of hope. We will all be reunited one day in heaven.

My thoughts & prayers are with you -

“ William will always hold a special place in my heart. William's caring nature was evident in his daily life. I often tell my students that although I am their teacher I learn from them each day! That certainly was the case with William, he taught others that although we face struggles we can overcome and find joy in life. Jesus said it best when he said that if we humble ourselves and becomes more like the children we too can find greatness in His Kingdom. May the peace of our Lord be with you today and in the days to come!##imported-begin##Arlin Brown##imported-end##
