I read this morning where Billy had passed away. I spoke with him on a number of occasions and knew he was not doing well. At times like this it is always difficult to find words to say. It seems only a short time ago when several of us use to hunt, fish and hang out together. I am sorry and hope all the family can find comfort in knowing that Billy is not suffering or in pain anymore. I also trust that the Holy Spirit will bring comfort only as he can do. Please give my condolences to all the family and let me also say I am sorry I did not realize Billy had passed away until this morning.
