“ When Jimmy called me Monday morning to give me the sad news that Windy had passed away it was one of the saddest things I have experienced. It was the end of an era, and the losing of not only a dear friend, but someone who had been my right-hand "man" for 20 years. Windy's intelligence, intuition, and quick reactions to all situations was invaluable in helping me serve my clients. If there had been a "Della Street" then Windy would have been the inspiration for that character, and she made this lawyer look like a Perry Mason! She was tough, dedicated and fought the good battle of illness for years, and it is not likely we will see her likes again. Good night, and sweet dreams, my wonderful partner in law, and I hope that you once again join the ones that you have missed so terribly these past few years. William R. L. Latson, Attorney at Law, Jonesboro, Georgia.
