

Zack Stringer

May 14, 1985 - March 8, 2020

On May 14, 1985 a boy named Zackary Winfield Stringer was born. On March 8, 2020 he lost his life. And oh what a life, what a man our Zack was. He is survived by his adoring parents: Cheri & Andrew, his big sisters: Ashlea & Claire, brothers: Ryan, Brent & Julian, his lifelong best friend Tim & the babies he loved so very passionately: Autumn, Sapphire & Jaeden. With piercing blue eyes & a heart that was even bigger than his huge presence, Zack's impact went far & wide. Following in the steps of his great grandfather, our Zack bravely chose to serve his country & in that finding a band of Marine brothers so loyal & true. Serving two tours in Iraq, he gave years of his life sacrificing & surviving so that the people & places he loved so much would continue to be healthy, happy & safe. Zack lived life with a simple purpose, to love & be loved. His burly contagious laugh could heal any sadness. His hugs, like him, were larger than life. Zack leaves behind a legacy of love that will continue to be inspired in his name & a tribe of people that are forever changed because of him.

On Sunday, March 8, 2020, our dear Zack Stringer joined his Meme and brothers-in-arms in Heaven, far before his time. He was a proud father, Marine, son, brother, cousin, uncle, grandson and friend, and although we only had him here with us for 34 short years, his impact was wide. Known for his huge presence, his even larger heart...our Zack lived life on his own terms. He was a force to be reckoned with...a hurricane of love and strength, struggle and redemption....our hearts will never be complete again. Our lives will never be as colorful. Words cannot describe the pain and loss our family is going through at this time. It's hard to know how to feel, or the words to find when someone you love, so much, goes so unexpectedly. The conversations left unsaid, the words left unspoken. There is no guidebook for how to get through each day, or how to comfort those around you who are feeling the same strike of pain that you are. Zack lived life the only way he knew how, hard and fierce. He fought, he laughed, he cried...he loved.

Thank you to his friends, his Marines, his teamsters, and all those who loved him that have reached out over the past two days. The overwhelming amount of support that has descended upon our family during this unimaginably difficult time is extremely humbling. We want you all to know, our pain is your pain, and yours is ours. We don't know what lies ahead in the coming days, weeks, and months as we adjust to life without our blonde hair, blue-eyed boy. All we know is that he was loved, as fiercely as those with whom he loved...all of us, and all of you. We will remember him and cherish forever the years that God gave us with him.

For those who would like to join us in celebration of Zack, services will be held at held at Williams Funeral Home & Cemetery in Milledgeville, GA this upcoming Monday, March 16th. We will hold a viewing service from 12pm-1pm, with the funeral services to begin at 1. He will be laid to rest at Georgia Veterans Memorial Cemetery following the services.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts to all of you who loved him as much as we did. Thank you for your understanding and patience as we navigate this unknown road. The heavens are brighter today...and we all know it's the ones left behind that will feel the pain most...but he's at peace now...our big, burly, adorable, crazy, passionate Zack...now an angel among us. Here always...loved always...remembered always.

I am sorry I was unable to attend the service in person. Thank you for this live feed so I could attend in spirit. What beautiful tributes from Zack's children and brothers and sisters. I thank him for his service to his country. Zack was truly one of a kind and will be terribly missed by all who knew him and loved him. As a beloved hymn says "When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be. When we all see Jesus, we'll sing and shout the victory." I pray for everyone in the family - for peace and comfort and for healing as we grieve.

Four years since you last died, you were such a lift in my life and I miss you everyday. Family friend, or not. You were the father I never had and whenever I see your face, hear your voice, or think about you, I burst into tears. I miss you everyday, I love you infinitely. It's hard to let go and I'm sorry for always grieving you. I love you, Uncle Zack.

“ I think of you often. You hold some of my favorite middle and high school memories. I am so glad I got to photograph your family and hug you as adults. I miss the random fb messages from time to time. You are so missed. Can't wait to see you again one day! I pray for your children often and will continue to every time you cross my mind friend. ❤️

“ I'll miss you bud. I'll never forget the times we had in omega. Cook outs and watching soa together playing video games way to late. We had some fun and crazy stuff happen at That little family park. I wish we had the chance to ride together like we talked about. One of the last things you said to me was we are family. I will miss you ride high brother. Semper Fi

“ Stringer,

This sucks man! Writing this here and now makes this all that much more real. Although, Creator knows I don't want to believe it, however, who am I to argue with that power? I had my time to lead, teach, and walk beside you while learning from you as well, my only wish is that I served you honorably in a way that you wanted and expected from a leader and I guess that's why you wrote what you did here in this passage as we departed from our first tour. Brother, you will be forever missed.

*Cheri and Andrew,
Loss is terrible how ever it comes. Loss with no notice is so much harder. To lose a child to me is tge biggest heartache any parent can ever go through. Please know that Christ gave his life for us all. Zack lived his Life for us all. He lived with such love, passion, excitment, joy, respect. He served this great country with Honor to protect ALL people. A gift many cannot do. My heart know the grief you will endure for life. Know Zack would want you to continue to live loving life. You are both a treasure to me. My heart and prayers are with you each n everyday. Much love. BARBARA GALVIN*

“ There are some who have a light so great that when they leave, the light remains. That’s the best thing I’ve found to describe his incredible spirit, love and courage. His light will never go out. I’m so angry you are no longer with us, but so grateful you are at peace in the arms of our Lord and our beloved Meme. I love you Zack.
